I think I would like this game. But I can't get a pass the profile and it gives me to cursors. very upsetting. I uninstalled it twice and got the same thing. How I feel right now is upset.. I found the story line ok but what really got me was when you hit the hint button it would flash so fast you didn't have any time to read it. I had wait and let the hint button fill up to read it again. It took several times to see the hint.. this game is terrible. Some games are bad without trying. this game really tried and succeeded. puzzles areset so if you are called away you cant get off the screen so you have to pass. the only good thing about this game is its pretty. not recommended for anyone who wants to have a good experience. it really is awful. cybermom 22. This game was terrible. Puzzles were too easy and more for a young child. Some of the puzzles didn't make sense.. utter rubbish
